To Whom It May Concert

It is with great honor and deep respect that I write this letter of recommendation for Mr. Manoj Basnet, an accomplished media professional and influential voice within the global Nepali community. As a Disabled Veteran, Chairman of the United Nepali Political Action Committee (UNPAC), and a former candidate for the United States Congress, I have observed Mr. Basnet's enduring commitment to excellence, his unwavering advocacy for truth thro...

Mr. Basnet's contributions to journalism and media are significant in scope and exemplary in quality. His profound grasp of the geopolitical dynamics of the South, especially those about it, demonstrates a level of intellectual acuity and strategic insight rarely encountered. He consistently exhibits a rare ability to contextualize complex issues with clarity, balance, and cultural sensitivity, making him an invaluable asset in local and international media circles. What sets Mr. Basnet apart is not solely his journalistic prowess but also his character. His work is underscored by integrity, professionalism, and a deep sense of purpose. He has served as a bridge between communities, educating and empowering diverse audiences across borders. His willingness to engage thoughtfully with stakeholders from all walks of life and his ability to forge meaningful, long-term relationships speak volumes about his leadership and interpersonal acumen.

As Chairman of UNPAC, I have witnessed firsthand the transformative role of voices like Mr. Basnet's in shaping civic awareness and elevating public discourse. He is more than a media personality- he is a cultural ambassador, a community leader, and a strategic thinker whose influence continues to grow in relevance and reach. I offer Mr. Basnet my highest recommendation for any endeavor, role, or partnership he pursues. I am confident that his continued contributions will meet and exceed the expectations of any institution or organization fortunate enough to collaborate with him. With sincere admiration and full endorsement,

Adrian Pokharel
